

The Beacon Hand's Scholarship

from the Chancellor's Office of UMass Boston

Give US Your Poor and the UMass Boston Chancellor's Office would like to honor the efforts and accomplishments of a deserving student by lending a hand with his or her next academic challenge. The Beacon Hand's Scholarship, which covers UMass Boston tuition and fees for four years, is awarded to a high school or college student who has shown ability in the classroom, who is currently experiencing or has experienced homelessness, and who has articulated how he or she would use a college education to bring about positive change in society.
